ATTENTION WARRIORS

Maximum Overkill is the official newsletter of the IKV Black Demon and is produced jointly with the Klingon Assault Group (KAG). We are not responsible for any misleading ads, articles, or art work. By submitting artwork, articles, letters, or just about anything else, we assume it is for publication unless stated otherwise. Personal letters are exempt.

All submissions should be sent so that they arrive no later than the last weekend of the month. All submissions should be sent to:

IKV Black Demon c/o John Harrington Jr.
3470 Oak Tree Lane, Midlothian TX 76065.

KLINGON FACTIOD:

In an early draft of the script of ST3, the Klingon Bird-of-Prey was originally to be a stolen Romulan vessel, but that detail was dropped from the final draft. This would explain the red "feathers" on the wings.

Maximum Overkill is printed semi monthly for the entertainment purposes of the crew of the Klingon Assault Group (KAG) chapter, the IKV Black Demon. Current price for the news letter is $12 to get you 6 issues. By sending in art, stories, reports, or anything to be printed, we assume you are giving permission for print unless written otherwise.

Star Trek, Star Trek: The Next Generation, Star Trek: Deep Space Nine, Star Trek: Voyager, Star Trek: Lollapalooza, and the Star Trek movies are all exclusive properties of big brother: Paramount/VIACOM. Infringement on these rights will incur the wrath of Guido the Exterminator, Paramount's trademark violations expert.

No infringement is meant on our part, or whole, or quarter.

FROM THE CAP'N

nuqneH. In our last meeting we discussed the discontinue of this newsletter in favor of using a more easier and cheaper way to communicate (e-mail). I have been looking into creating a website for us to see how difficult it will be compared to continuing what we are doing. There is the possibility that we can create a message board with a free service. Again, we'll have to weigh our options. I must say that I am intrigued by that prospect, but I am also torn about letting this newsletter go. to be honest, I have found it hard to devote time to creating the newsletter every other month. With school, work, girlfriends, and time hanging out with you guys, I have to continually file paperwork for our chapter. Thankfully it's not like a few years ago when I was typing everything out on a typewriter.

Another reason I bring this up is I am jobless and without access to the program I need to create this newsletter. Yeah, I know in the last issue I just got the job, but I found out for my birthday that I am going to be laid off. Oh well, that's how start up companies go I guess. I do have some connections back at the college, but that's a 45-50 mile drive from my home to a computer that will not only scan, but read these disks. This might be something we consider when deciding to move on-line or not. We could always go for a different layout, but we'll see what I can come up with. I am finishing up this newsletter during my final week here. I don't care if they don't like it, I mean what are they going to do, fire me?

High Command has been acting strange lately. Yeah, you don't hear me gripe to my crew about HC issues, but this is serious. I don't think we are being taken as a serious chapter. I have heard griping that we don't do charities or anything other than what we like to do. As much as I like to be apart of a Klingon club, the thought of leaving has entered my mind. I, of course, will ask everyone's opinion if the discussion of us jumping ship come up. I will not make the decision on my own. I have also heard that we aren't the only chapter that's facing this problem.

Great news! We have established our first listening post in the state. Since Crpl. Warg is moving out of the area to continue his studies, he wants to continue being a part of the Black Demon crew. He and I talked and we found the perfect solution for him was to create a listening post. Hey it sounds cooler than a shuttle like the Feddies do. Warg will send in a report to me and I will add it to our newsletter (or whatever on-line equivalent we choose). Warg has yet to name his station, but I feel the right one will come along. This is also a potential started for a future Klingon chapter. Warg I wish you luck up in Denton (the home of happiness) and look forward to your future reports.

DEPT. REPORTS

The following reports were given at the last two meetings and transcribed to be recorded here in Maximum Overkill.

XO: In light of our newsletter possibly ceasing production, I have a plan so cunning, you can brush your teeth with it. We start writing them on turnips!
- Kamarag

Communications: I have photo copies of the CTF War Journal for members to have. No other communications to report. - Khara

Navigation/Helm: Nothing new to report. - Krudge

Engineering: Probably need to rotate the tires and have the oil looked at. But other than that, everything is running smooth. - Kilrah

Weapons: Nothing new to report. - Koron

>>>ATTENTION<<<

Your attention is needed as a message will follow this attention. This message is to alert you of new crew members entering our ranks. Will the following people step up:

Terry Don Mathis: You now hold the rank of Sgt.

Elaina Quakenbush: You now hold the rank of Sgt.

Bill Accongio: You now hold the rank of Lance Corporal

Jay Sterling: You will not hold a rank on this ship. Sterling has opted not to portray a Klingon, but continue his Vulcan persona. His persona revolves around an observation position.

May Kahless smile on you and guide you to glory! I look forward to hearing the name you chose for yourself and all about your new persona. Contact me or Khara for back issues of our newsletter so that you construct your uniforms. Once you get your uniforms constructed, take a few pictures of yourself in your new persona and I will upgrade your ranks. KAI KASSA!!!!

Elise Loomis and her brother Jerry Loomis along with the Tallevast Family (Marvin, Jan, Sean, Lauren) are all Honorary Members of the IKV Black Demon until they see fit to construct a uniform and persona. They are to be treated as full members. I welcome you six along with our four other recruits. I am happy to know you all and look forward to hanging out and having fun with you all.

DENEBIAN SLIME DEVIL

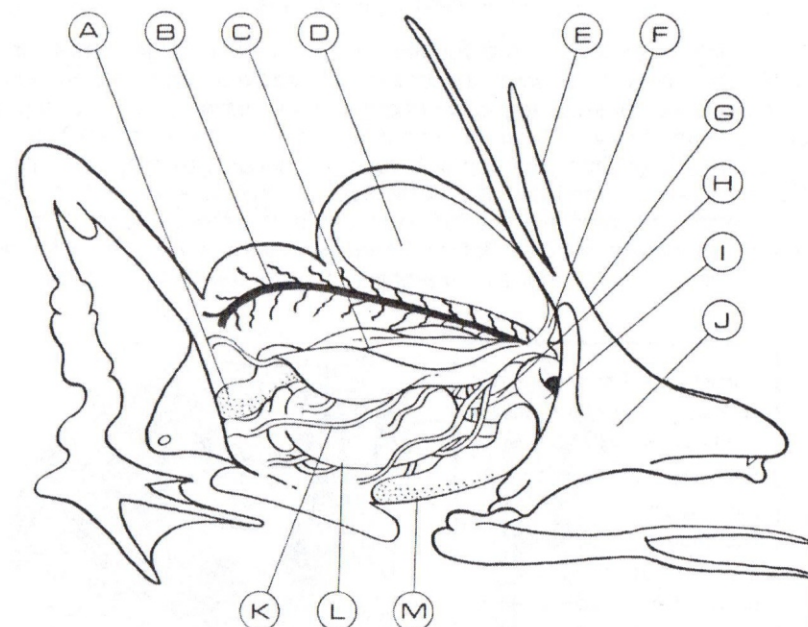

DENEB IV

The planet Deneb IV harbors the carnivorous slime devil, an amphibious, fast-moving predator that resides in the swampy seas that cover most of this hot, humid planet. The slime devil usually feeds on Deneb's bountiful stock of native fish life, spearing its prey with forklike foreclaws; but virtually all manner of creatures, including man, have fallen victim to this incredible voracious hunter. Denebia carnivora ranges in size from a few inches to several feet long, and uses a form of natural radar to locate its victims. Long, snorkle-like extensions on its head are used for breathing while partially submerged. The creature's demonic reputation stems from its blank, eyeless head and fang-encrusted grin, as well as a mindless, relentless instinct causing it to attack any life form, even those many times its size.

FREE CONVENTION SECURITY BADGE

PHOTOCOPY AND THEN CUT OUT.

That's right boys and girls. Are you tired of not having enough money for admission to a local con when it's time for it to come around? Did you know that most cons will allow you to "work off" your admission by being part of the security team? Did you know that half of the time they never check? Here is your chance to get into your con with your own security badge! Just cut out along the lines and laminate. It's that easy! If a con official wants to see your badge, just show them this and tell you that the Emperor assigned this to you for this specific con. If they ask for credentials, tell them this is an elite badge and that you are not authorized to answer questions, only to ask them.

Sometimes, I'm not easily recognized. But with one of Unkle Kahn's All-Purpose Security Badge (pat-pending), with a flash of the badge and a snarl, the mightiest of con officials back off and give me room. Thanks Unkle Kahn! I will save you a seat at the next convention.

DEAD AIR

"In space, no one can hear you fart... except us."

Warg here. I'm getting ready to pack my stuff and head to Denton to finish up my college studies. I am excited to tell you all that I have decided to help spread the presence of Klingon fandom further North of the DFW line. I didn't feel right naming the listening post until I was fully set up in my dorm. But I have come up with a few names. I was trying to come up with a "Black" or "Demon" in the name since I'm connected to this chapter, but I think I've come up with a few good names. I guess since IKV stands for "Imperial Klingon Vessel", then the letter designation for an Imperial Listening post would be "ILP" (Sounds good to me! - editor). The names I have come up with are: "Nighthawk", "Bloody Talon", "Poisoned Fang", "Black Horn", "Black Dagger", and the "Demon's Ear". I will think up a few more, but if anyone has suggestions, let me know.

What I have decided on was a title and slogan for my column. What do you all think? Cap'n said he was going to build a cool logo for it, so I hope you all like it. I won't see it until this report until it prints. Well, until next time. Warg OUT.

CLAIMED IN THE NAME OF THE KLINGON EMPIRE

Yes, even you too can claim anything in the name of The Empire! Start claiming items, events, objects of unknown origin, gaseous clouds, independence, and even people and places! Just have a look at what our mighty warriors and civilians have to claim:

- ▲ Kamarag tai-K'norm claims the shopping cart with the squeaky wheel, because no one else will.
- ▲ Khachie claims he saw the face of k'Elvis in his mihn'hor meat pie.
- ▲ Unkle Kahn claims that wasn't him climbing out of your daughter's window that night.
- ▲ Koron claims it wasn't him piloting the shuttle that night either.
- ▲ Torg claims the film rights to a movie based on the unfortunate events that proceed his life.
- ▲ Maltz claims that he was denied ritual suicide while in captivity.
- ▲ Keeve claims prune juice, because it can move the mightiest warrior.

THE LAST PAGE

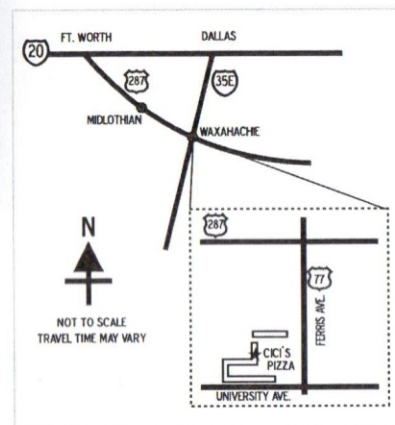

I want y'all to take note, the official mailing address of the IKV Black Demon has changed. My parents decided sometime before I was out of college to start building a new home of the family land. At the time of this newsletter's construction, the house is almost complete. By the time I send it out, we should be moved in. I'm sure the Post Office will forward all mail for a while, but I wanted to alert you guys of it. The new address can be found on the mailing portion of the outside of the newsletter. My phone number has changed as well. Look on page 4 for details.

The good news is that we will not only have a loft to play some table top games, but we have a few places along the creek where we can make a camp fire and hang out on cool evenings. There is plenty enough room for us to have a camp out as well, the land is about six acres (which is a lot for Midlothian!)

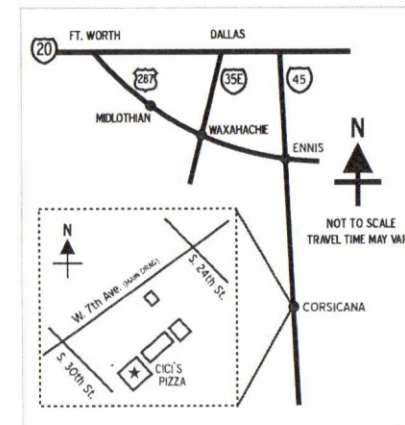

There is a small list of local conventions we need to discuss at our next meeting. Khara should be getting all the details from the local SFI chapters. The IKV Kontagion is having another recruitment drive at Starlog and has asked for assistance. If you are available to dress up or just come out to the mall for an appearance, the drive will be on Saturday, October 18th from noon to 6pm. Afterward we are going to march upstairs and hit up Tilt for a few games. If you need a ride, give me a call. My new phone number can be found on page 4.
